Scope of the Position:

Under the supervision of a Principal Claim Auditor, the incumbent will audit claims for payment for legitimacy, compliance with provisions of the law, applicable regulations, and state practices. Duties include but are not limited to the following:

Duties and Responsibilities:

Candidates must perform the following essential functions with or without reasonable accommodations

- Audit claims for payment from the State Treasury. Audit procedures consist of determining legal authority to incur financial obligations, that claims are charged against the proper appropriations, claims comply with contract terms, DPA, California Victim Compensation and Governmental Claims Board, and other regulatory and statutory provisions, claims are supported by evidence, work was performed or goods delivered, and expenditures are proper in regard to the programs of the agency submitting the claims.
- Review contracts and contract amendments, and prepare brief of provisions for entry into a contracts database for use in reviewing claims for payment of contracts. Post contract payments to the contracts database to insure that total payments claimed do not exceed total contract amount.
- Perform research using the State Constitution, State and Federal statutes, opinions of the Courts and Attorney General, California Administrative Code, and SCO opinions, to answer questions that arise in the course of reviewing claims for payment.
- Prepare written summaries of claim corrections for errors for lead auditor review; prepares claim correction and claim rejection letters to agencies setting forth reasons for correction or rejection.
